28 September 1963 - OSWALD again visited the Soviet Embassy. He spoke with Soviet Consul KOSTIKOV (whom he later referred to as "comrade Kostin").

NOTE: Valeriy Vladimirovich KOSTIKOV, who has functioned overtly as a Consul in the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City since September 1961, is also known to be a staff officer of the KGB. He is connected with the Thirteenth, or "liquid affairs" department, whose responsibilities include assassination and sabotage.
